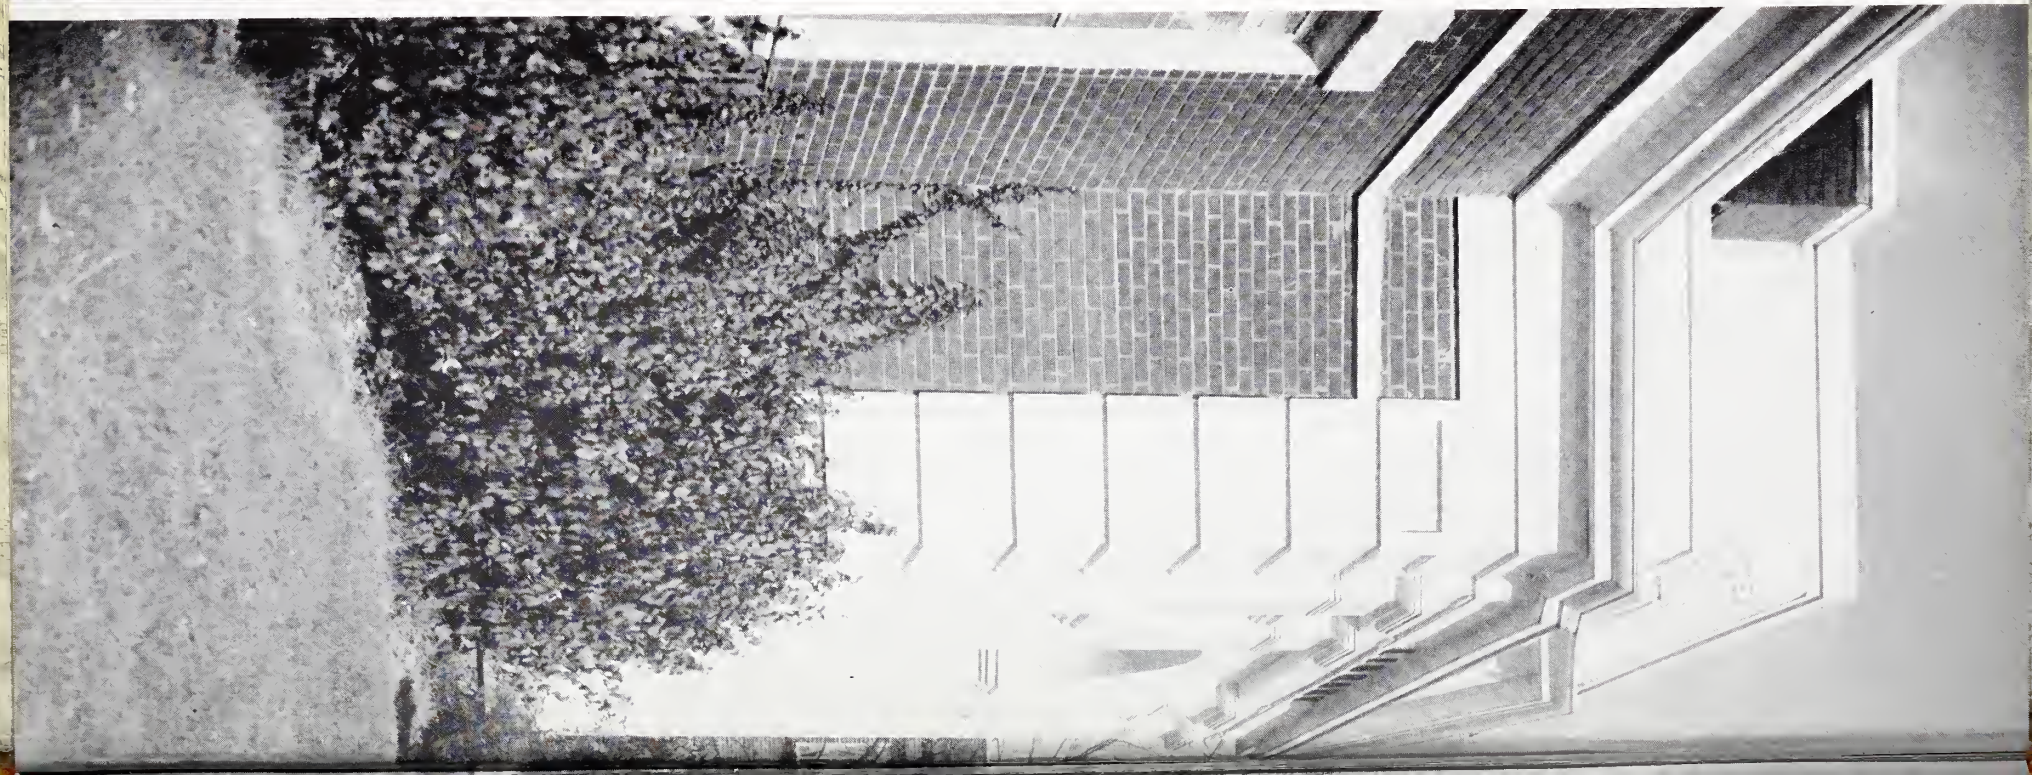
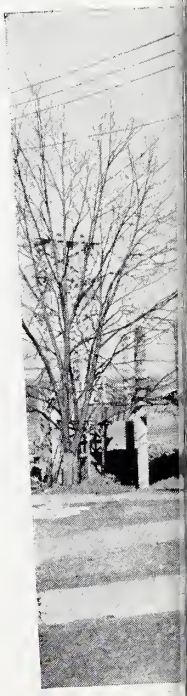
The 1954 CHIEFTAIN



A year of happiness and



This was the year of ... The construction of our new Science and Student Activity Building, many good times and the rush and bustle that became routine. It was the twentieth year of West Georgia College, and we think, the most wonderful year of all

1954

By following the seasons it is hoped that memories of the thrilling new excitement of fall, the beautiful, gray routine of winter and the fresh, sweet relief of Spring ... will be yours.

For the annual Staff, it was a year of hard work, but will forever be a pleasant memory. Working out schedules, making pictures and meeting deadlines was not easy, but here it is in completion. We sincerely hope it is as you would like it to be.

SPRING

Foreword . . .

As we proudly present our 1954 yearbook, we the "Chieftain" staff, sincerely hope that it will serve many purposes:

To picture our faculty, students, and activities.

To enable newcomers to learn the names of their classmates.

To show relatives and friends something of the life at West Georgia College.

But most of all, to recall for our graduating sophomores the memories of by-gone years.

We, the 1954 Chieftain staff, dedicate this 20th edition of our annual to one who has been untiring in her efforts to make West Georgia College a wonderful place in which to live and go to school; one who has led us in our religious activities, taught us mathematics, and has served as public relations chairman of West Georgia College for several years.

Yes, we dedicate this 1954 Chieftain to MISS MARION CRIDER.

PEOPLE

Mr. Wroten's Economics Class!!

At West Georgia, Students and Faculty are always pals.

I. S. INGRAM, ED.D.
President

One big happy family is the relationship of the students and faculty here at West Georgia College. The absence of our registrar. Miss Katie Downs, who attended Ohio State University during the winter quarter, left a very noticeable vacancy for many of the students.

As in other years, we have had some additions to the faculty which are: Mrs. Marie Grice, cashier and secretary to the president; Mr. James Overton, Instructor in Commerce and library assistant; Mr. Richard Howell, choir director; Miss Dorothy McNabb, Woman's P.E. teacher; and Mr. William Sessions, English teacher.

We were very fortunate in having a number of foreign students with us this year. Chhaya Rudra came to us from India, Boonsom Araworop from Thailand, and Triantafyllos Triantafyllou from Greece.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

As we look back through these two years at West Georgia, we cherish the good times which we have had together. We hope we have proved ourselves to be real campus leaders and may our experience be the stepping stones for the Freshman Class. Through the eagerness, enthusiasm, and winning personalities of our classmates we have paved the way toward winning higher honors and great recognition for West Georgia College. To you, the graduating class of 1954, we dedicate this section of our annual. Good luck, Sophomores, may you have much success in the future.

OFFICERS

COY SHORT, President, LARRY BOGGS, Vice President, and MARION SMITH, Secretary, all prove what an excellent freshman class we have this year. BETTY TUGGLE, Treasurer, could not be present for this picture.

AIR RAID, RAT COURT! These and many other words were very disgusting during our first few weeks at W.G.C. But as time has passed we, as freshmen, have come to realize the value of Rat Week. We are proud that we have been able to take these and other hardships on the chin, and not let it dim our eagerness to advance. We feel that we are now worthy to take over the offices and duties of our graduating sophomores, and carry out them to the best of our ability.

OFFICERS

BETTY HENDERSON, President, DORIS McKIBBEN, Vice President, and HAROLD HERRIN, Secretary and Treasurer, discuss plans for Sand Hill.

Yes, they too were green little freshmen a few years ago. But they survived rat week and two whole years of work and play and returned for their third year. They are an outstanding group of students, receiving a three year certificate for elementary teaching. As you, Juniors, finish your training, West Georgia challenges you to make your experience here your stepping stones to the success you so well deserve.

Our exchange student, Chhaya Rudra, has some avid listeners in Bud Jones, Barbara Hall and Marsue Dean as they interview her.

Editor Rebecca Lee and her assistants, Marion Smith and Jimmy Cook, are shown looking over the results of the first issue of the West Georgian this year.

The behind-the-scene workers are the reporters, Ann Cadenhead, J. L. White, Ray Knight, Jack Chilton, Russell Kent, Lyndy Beers, Clayton Chance, Sara Castleman and Zelda Duke.

Mr. Sessions gives some helpful advice to fashion editor, Joy Owen; Columnist, Mary Ruth Pulliam; Exchange Editor, Barbara Lanthier; and reporter, Libby Anthony.

n Cadenhead and Jimmy Edwards take a lesson from Re-cca as they start to prepare their copy for the next issue.

WEST GEORGIAN

The West Georgian is rated among the best junior college newspapers in the South. It has received recognition on several occasions from the Associated Collegiate Press. The paper stresses student expression, student solution to problems, and campus relations.

Work on a newspaper such as the West Georgian gives students an opportunity to express themselves in writing and editing as a form of journalistic experience. The paper for this school year was under the faculty guidance of Mr. William Sessions.

Rebecca Lee served as editor for the '53-'54 school year. Associate editors were Marion Smith and Jimmy Cook; Jimmy Edwards served as associate the last two quarters to replace Jimmy Cook, who transferred from W.G.C.

Circulation manager Shirley Mintz and business managers James Duffey and Larry Boggs get together with staff photographer Elliott Hill for a gab fest.

The sports staffs and typists pool their talents together to form one of the best college papers in this region. They are: seated, A. Davis and Barbara Stubbs; standing, Betty Stubbs, B. Hall, J. Edwards, C. Short, B. Jones and F. Bailey.

Chieftain editor Carolyn Milner and her assistants, Nina Ward and Marion Smith, take a moment's rest from their task of planning the Chieftain to face the photographer.

THE CHIEFTAIN

Business staff members Peggy Day, Martha Terry, Charlotte Rogers and Emory Bowen help business manager Shirley Mintz plan the ad pages.

The Soda Shop buys an advertisement from business staffers Ray Knight, Charlotte Rogers, Emory Bowen and Gloria Lewis.

Dear Student Body:

Each year since the beginning of West Georgia College, twenty years ago, we have had the annual publication of the "Chieftain." For a number of years it has been awarded an honor rating by the Associated Collegiate Press, and of course, our ambition this year is to live up to these honors.

We have worked hard, but we could not have reached our goal without the cooperation of every member of the student body and faculty. It was not easy, but we sincerely hope you will join us in saying, "It was well worth the trouble."

The Staff

Top Right: Bud Jones, Coy Short, Barbara Hall and J. C. Johnston give the sports section a critical going over.

Center: The Chieftain camera bugs Elliott Hill and Lamar Cole show their hobby to typist Barbara Hall.

Lower Right: The Club and Class editors consist of Marsue Dean, Paula Whatley, Tommye Lewis, Gloria Lewis, Elise Wilson, Nancy Denton and Barbara Lanthier.

Below: These three Chieftain members are responsible for the art work. They are Norman Ivy, Reba Whitley and Becky Nolan.

President JOHN VAUGHN and Vice President GENE HUDSON leave Council meeting.

The West Georgia Student Government has been outstanding in the leading and sponsoring of student activities on campus. The Student Council is composed of class officers, members of dormitory councils, and representatives from the day students.

Under the guidance of Mr. Floyd Wirsing, the council has sponsored the Homecoming Dance and activities, the Sweetheart Dance, and arranged for recreation on Saturday nights. They have tried to improve the meals and general living conditions at West Georgia.

The Student Government has proved itself a government of the students, by the students, and for the students.

ALPHA PSI

Alpha Psi is affiliated with the state and national Home Economics Clubs. The memberships consist of young women interested in homemaking. Programs are given semi-monthly concerning personal grooming, clothing and clothing design, future materials for the home, foods and cookery. The club sponsors an annual dance, the May Day festival, projects of foreign aid, and acts as host for various other occasions.

The Tieje-Downs Chapter of Future Teachers of America is composed of the students majoring in any field of education. Its two aims are to interest students in teaching as a career, and to give them the experience of working together. Its main purpose is to provide information that will benefit future teachers.

Members of the chapter assist the faculty during freshman orientation week and present a chapel program during American Education Week. Each year delegates are sent to the state meetings. This year the president of the chapter served as Vice-President of the Georgia F.T.A., after being elected at the state meeting in 1953.

The F.T.A. is affiliated with the Georgia Education Association and the National Association of Education.

Officers NELL ANN HEMMINGER, Vice President, TOMMYE LEWIS, Secretary, and JOY PUTNAM, President, devote much time to planning and leading the members in the work of the V.R.A.

A vesper service is held each Wednesday night with speakers from all denominations.

V . R . A .

One of the most important organizations on the campus is the Voluntary Religious Association, which is a non-denominational organization open to all college students interested in enriching the Christian atmasphere in their own lives and on the campus. A council to guide its activities is campased of students wha wish to give their time for the furtherance af these activities.

One af the highlights of the year is the Religious Emphasis Week sponsored by the V.R.A. during fall quarter. This year the speaker was the Rev. S. Wilkes Dendy of Dalton, Georgia. The theme chosen was "Yau Can Follaw In His Steps." Mr. Dendy stressed the fact that you da not have to be a minister or missionary to serve Christ.

The main activity af the council is a vesper service held each Wednesday night. It also sponsors the Freshman Reception, and this year it helped a needy family at Christmas.

The V.R.A. Council is composed of freshman and sophomore boys and girls who volunteer their services to religious activities on the campus.

Installation of V.R.A. Council is an inspiring service including both freshman and sophomores held at the beginning of each year.

DEBATE CLUB

The Debate Club with Mr. Burroughs as faculty spansar is far students wha are interested in debating issues af lacal as well as natianal interest.

This club has a very good recard and makes trips ta many calleges in the South far intercollegiate debates. The high paint of the season is the annual West Georgia Intercollegiate Debate Taurnament, held at West Georgia College.

4-H CLUB

"To Make the Best Better" is the motto of the millions of 4-H club members throughout our land. Here at West Georgia the 4-H Club members have proved that statement.

During the fall quarter the members sponsored a float for the Homecoming parade and winter quarter they sponsored an old fashioned square dance. All of the activities are planned to be of service to others.

The club is composed of former 4-H club members and students who are interested in the development of the head, heart, hands and health —the four-fold purpose of 4-H club work.

This past football season was far from being successful, but, the sportsmanship and fortitude exemplified by the West Georgia Braves, made bright the defeats they suffered. The squad was green, being made up mostly of freshmen; but this was not the reason for the defeats. As the season progressed the Braves found that a junior college was no match for the superiority of a senior college.

The basic idea of athletics at West Georgia is not the victory, but the valuable experience of how to win and how to lose. No other group of boys could have had more fun on their trips in the "Blue Goose" than the Braves of '54. In their minds will long remain the anxious moments they experienced waiting for the bands to stop playing and the thrill of putting on their cleats.

Co-Captain Bill Potts plunges through Hiwassee's line for extra point. Charles Essex, Gerald Horn and Dan Bryant aid in tally.

Bill Potts bowls over opponent in Homecoming game. Charlie Smith, Joe Parris, and Eddie Teal clear poth for Potts.

It takes four A.G.D. men to bring down Charles Essex.
